Anti-Ragging committee

The Hon'ble Supreme court of India admitted and heard the above referred SLPs in relation to the menace of ragging in technical institution/Universities/College in the country in this connection,

A committee headed by Mr. Pradeep kumar Agarwal, Former Director, for giving specific recommendation on

Effective prevention of ragging in educational institutions was constituted by the apex court accordingly,

The committee had carried out a very detailed study on the various factors contributing for ragging and

Collected the public opinion, Further, the committee had submitted a detailed report with suitable

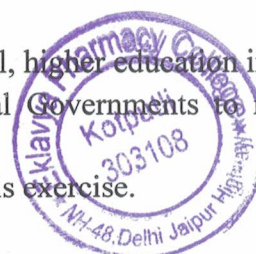

Recommendation and measures required to effectively curb the menace. The recommendation of the Committee was duly accepted. The following directives have been issued to all the education Institutes

For necessary implementation by the Hon'ble Court and this college proposes to follow them.

1. Factors enlisted by the committee.

1. Primary responsibility for curbing ragging rests with academic institution themselves.
2. Ragging advisory impacts the standard of higher education.
3. Incentives should be available to institution for curbing the menace there should be disincentives for failure to do so.
4. Enrolment in academic pursuits or a campus life should not immunize any adult citizen from penal provision of the laws of the land.
5. Ragging needs to be perceived as failure to inculcate human values from the schooling stage.
6. Behavioural patterns among students, particularly potential 'raggers' need to be measures against ragging must deter its recurrence.
7. Concerted action is required at the level of the school, higher education institution, district administration, University State and central Governments to make any curb.
8. Media and the civil Society should be involved in this exercise.
